Q10. How do I register for the Florida District Conference, and will there be on-site registration?

A10. You should have received a correspondence from the Florida District on August 3, 2026, to register for the Florida District Conference. All Brothers should register using the registration link in the Conference Call email. Additional follow-up emails will be sent throughout the registration process, but please don't delay your registration!

Chapter Delegates must obtain the PROMO CODE from their Chapter President, which waives the registration fee for Delegates. Non-Delegates must pay the District Conference registration fee listed on the registration form. An additional processing convenience fee will apply. Spring 2026 and Fall 2025 Neophytes will receive an email from Brother Kaseem Mabry, District Financial Secretary with the PROMO CODE to waive the Neophyte District Conference registration fee.

If a Neophyte intends to serve as a Chapter Delegate, he must use the Chapter Delegate PROMO CODE instead of the Neophyte PROMO CODE when registering for the District Conference. Neophyte PROMO CODES are not transferable to other chapter Brothers, nor to Brothers not initiated via the Florida District in Spring 2026 or Fall 2025. Brothers and Chapters who do not follow the Florida District registration instructions, may be subject to an administrative fee. Any questions regarding the District Conference registration fees, chapter invoices, PROMO CODES, or payments in general, should be directed to Kaseem Mabry, District Financial Secretary at finsecretary@ffac1906.org. Please note, advance registration is required to attend the 66th Florida District Conference. No on-site full registration will be conducted. The deadline for all conference registrations is September 8, 2026.
